Wedding Etiquette

To help you prepare for your special day we have prepared a suggested Wedding Etiquette.

The Receiving Line

This is a formal greeting of your guests before you conclude the drinks reception. It is not essential, but does ensure that you meet all your guests:

- Newlyweds' parents
- Bridesmaids - Optional
- Best Man - Optional

Top Table Seating Plan

When preparing your seating plan the top table should be as follows:

- Friend • Best Friend • Father
- Mother • Newlyweds • Father
- Mother • Best Friend • Friend

Cutting the Cake

This is announced by the toastmaster or Best Man. The first slice is then cut by the Newlyweds.

The cake can either be served with coffee after the meal or with the evening buffet.

Toasts and Speeches

These follow the meal and are made in the following order:

To the Newlyweds

This is normally by the parent of the Newlyweds or a close friend.

To the Wedding Party

Proposed by the Newlyweds after their reply to the first toast. The response to this is made by the Best Man.

Our suggested

Timetable for the Day

Whilst you are very welcome to suggest your own preference as to how your 'Special Day' should go, our years of experience lead us to recommend the following itinerary:

- 1.30pm Ceremony will take place
- 2.00pm Drinks reception
- 4.00pm Call to Dinner
- 4.15pm Speeches
- 5.00pm The meal is served, accompanied by the wine of your choice.
- 6.30pm Guests retire for a break and the room is prepared for the evening's entertainment. This allows your guests to relax, stroll on the terrace and freshen up. This is also the time when your entertainers for the evening can conclude their setting up. We strongly recommend that you ask them to have as much as possible set up before the afternoon's events!
- 7.00pm Evening guests will arrive and be welcomed by the Newlyweds.
- 8.00pm Newlyweds take the floor for the first dance, signalling the start of the evening's entertainment.
- 9.30pm The evening finger buffet is normally served at this time, during the band's break, and cleared at 10pm when the band is ready to recommence.
- Midnight Residential guests may retire to the Stags Head Bar for a night cap.
